

Extended Producer Responsibility plan

Redington (India) Limited, as a distributor of imported electrical and electronic equipments undertakes the following plan for safe disposal of E-waste.

General Scheme for Collection of E-waste

- The Company would be collecting the E-waste generated through channels as it distributes the imported products.
- The Company does not sell/distribute goods to the End-users and hence for collection of E-waste from the end-users, it has to depend on its Dealers.
- Wherever the vendor/brand owner float any schemes for channelization and collection of e-waste, the same would be adopted and implemented.

Collection and Storage of E-waste :

- Redington (India) Limited has proposed to avail the warehousing and logistics services of ProConnect Supply Chain Solutions Limited, a Company engaged in the business of Warehousing and Logistics with presence PAN India, by designating them as Drop Points for collection of e-wastes. The Company has placed collection bins along with appropriate indication at the warehouses of ProConnect.
- The warehouses which are designated as Drop points have presence in majority of the states and complete address of Drops points along with the contact details and telephone Nos have been provided in Annexure-1.
- The E-waste collected at the said drop points would be accumulated at centralized collection centre at the following address which will in turn be taken by the recyclers for appropriate disposal. The flow chart of the take back mechanism is given
