

Study House rises, raise issues. Modi to NDA

ARCHIS MOHAN & PVI New Delhi, July

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday addressed the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) constituents to appoint spokespersons, who should regularly coordinate with each other to ensure that the government's views on issues are conveyed forthrightly and in unison.

The PM addressed the Members of Parliament (MPs) of the ruling NDA in the morning where he asked them to study parliamentary procedures, rules of conduct, attend Parliament regularly and raise issues of their respective constituencies, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Kiren Rijiju said.

Modi advised the MPs on the subject a day after Union ministers Rijiju and Ashwini Vaishnaw accused Leader of Opposition (LoP) Rahul Gandhi of having "denigrated" the post that he was now occupied by the "irresponsible" statements he made in his speech in the Lok Sabha during the debate on the President's address. The PM also asked the MPs that beyond party affiliations, commitment to serve the nation should be foremost in their mind. According to sources, the PM said the Congress is upset for the first time a non-Congress leader has become Prime Minister for a third straight term. Modi spoke of his modest beginnings and humble background. Rijiju said the PM did not refer to Rahul Gandhi's speech in the Lok Sabha. But the message is clear when the country's Prime Minister speaks, Rijiju added.

SPEAKER EXPUNGES PORTIONS OF LoP'S SPEECH Defies logic, restore remarks: Rahul

ARCHIS MOHAN New Delhi, July

In a letter to Speaker Om Birla, Leader of Opposition (LoP) in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi (pvt) on Tuesday said the "selective expunction" of portions of the speech he delivered on Monday defied logic, it was against the tenets of parliamentary democracy, and that his remarks should be restored.

In his letter, Gandhi said while the Chair has powers to expunge certain remarks from the records, the stipulation is that he can erase only those kinds of words, the nature of which has been specified in Rule 380 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Lok Sabha. "I am, however, shocked to note the manner in which considerable portions of my speech have been expunged," he said. He also mentioned the proceedings under the garb of expunction," Gandhi, whose Monday's speech was in the LoP in the Lok Sabha, said. According to Supriya Shrinete, Congress' social media department chairperson, the Chair expunged 13 portions of Gandhi's speech, which included his criticisms of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)'s alleged divisive politics, the Agniphath scheme, demonetisation, goods and services tax (GST) and crony capitalism.

Gandhi said in his letter, "I am constrained to state that the portions expunged do not come under the ambit of Rule 380. What I sought to convey in the House is the ground reality and the factual position. Every member of the House, who personifies the collective voice of people whom he or she represents, has the freedom of speech as enshrined in Article 105(1) of the Constitution of India." The Congress leader flagged the speech of BJP MP Anurag Thakur, who had opened the debate on Monday. Gandhi said Thakur's speech was full of allegations but "surprisingly only one word from Manipur, his name, has been expunged".

EVM, Manipur to Agnipath: Oppn trails gums on gov, EC

ARCHIS MOHAN New Delhi, July

On a charged Tuesday in both Houses of Parliament, the Samajwadi Party's Akhlesh Yadav and the Congress' Digvijaya Singh led the Opposition in voicing scepticism about electronic voting machines (EVMs) and questioning the conduct of the Election Commission during the recent Lok Sabha elections.

The first session of the 18th Lok Sabha was adjourned sine die on Tuesday after passage of the Motion of Thanks on the President's address to the joint sitting of both Houses of Parliament.

The Opposition staged the debate on the Motion of Thanks to the President's address as a platform to confront the government on a spectrum of issues, from recent election paper leaks and the Agnipath scheme to the strife in Manipur and livelihood challenges like inflation and unemployment.

declared that he would not trust EVMs even in the hypothetical scenario of his party winning all 80 seats in Uttar Pradesh. He said the INDIA bloc, should it ascend to power at the Centre, would abolish EVMs altogether. "I did not trust EVMs yesterday. And even if I win all 80 seats, I will not trust EVMs," he proclaimed.

The SP clinched 37 of 80 Lok Sabha seats in the recent polls, outperforming the BJP securing 33 seats in the state. This made the SP the third-largest party in the Lok Sabha, trailing only the BJP and the Congress.

Yadav obliquely criticised the Election Commission, stating, "When the Model Code of Conduct was enforced, the government and the commission were favouring some people. I do not want to go into details. Somewhere, a question has been raised about that institution as well."

He promised that the INDIA bloc's future government at the Centre would dismantle the Agnipath scheme and highlighted the reasons for the BJP's loss of the Ayodhya (Faizabad) Lok Sabha seat. Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla later cautioned against questioning the impartiality of the Election Commission.

In the Rajya Sabha, Congress' Digvijaya Singh echoed similar sentiments, accusing the Election Commission of partiality and challenging the credibility of the EVMs. Alongside Singh, Aam Aadmi Party's Raghubar Yadav, SP's Ram Gopal Yadav, and others interrogated the government on the alleged exam paper leaks.

In a poignant speech late Monday night, A. Bimol Akojiam, the first-time Congress member from Inner Circle, expressed his anguish over the omission of any reference to the ethnic violence in Manipur in President Droupadi Murmu's address to the joint session of the Lok Sabha on Monday.

He said, "I am a professor at New Delhi's Jawahar Nehru University, was the final speaker in the Lok Sabha on Monday, delivering his remarks close to midnight.

"The heart, the anger has thrown a nobody like me to be part of this spectacle of democracy, beating the BJP cabinet minister. Think about the pain. I will keep quiet the day after the Prime Minister opens his mouth and the nationalist party says that we care for the people of that state," said Akojiam, who also thanked Union minister Rajkumar Ranjan Singh in the recent elections.

After the PM concluded his speech, the Lok Sabha passed a resolution that criticised the Opposition for disrupting Modi's speech. Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, who had moved the resolution, said the actions of the Opposition MPs "shredded" parliamentary norms. Union minister Amit Shah seconded the motion, which the House passed by a voice vote.

The House adjourned sine die, and will now meet for the Budget session later this month. The PM will reply to the debate in the Rajya Sabha on Wednesday.

Govt to complete 100 days on Sept 16

Modi, who was sworn in as PM on June 9, will complete 100 days in office on September 16, a day before his birthday.

The Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship is looking to train around 150,000 women under the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojana, with a third of them acquiring new-age skills, in the first 100 days of the government's tenure. Business Standard reported last month.

Congress fomenting social discord: PM

PM Modi spoke of fulfilling the objective of constructing modern infrastructure, 30 million houses, for the poor and employing women self-help groups. The PM said his government continued reforms with an objective of "nation first". "We do not believe in tushikaran (oppression) but satyameva tushikaran (fulfilment)," Modi said. He said the policy of appeasement had harmed the country. He said his government would work towards making India the world's fastest growing economy, ushering in a "green era", and creating both employment and self-employment opportunities. A recent study, he noted, had shown private-sector jobs were growing faster than public-sector jobs.

The speaker to allow an MP from Manipur to speak. When Birla said one of the MPs from Manipur had already spoken in the House (on Monday night), Congress MP Gaurav Gogoi, along with two Manipur MPs, entered the Well of the House, with several Congress MPs pinning down the Opposition MPs. In his speech, the PM said the BJP and its allies won in all four states in the Lok Sabha polls. He reminded the House that the BJP had swept the Rajasthan, MP and Chhattisgarh Assembly polls. He said a mere six months back, the
