Sir/Madam,

Sub: Clarification regarding news articles published in the media

This is with reference to the email dated January 25, 2025, received by the Company from BSE Limited seeking clarifications on various news articles published by media stating that:

Redington Ltd has launched an enhanced B2B e-commerce platform, Redington Online, designed to streamline procurement, improve efficiency, and support business growth for its partners. The platform, powered by open-source technology, offers features like smart product bundling, real-time tracking, and seamless data migration.

Redington's online B2B e-commerce platform has been live since 2022. We have recently launched an enhanced platform, moving from a license platform to an open-source, zero license platform, which is designed to improve efficiency, optimise processes offering partners, innovative and user-friendly solutions.

This enhancement of operational features is in the normal course of business and therefore, does not constitute a material event; hence, it is not an event requiring disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

This is for your information and records.
